

From: Mark Miller
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/27/02 2:57pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft must be severely punished for it's arrogant monopolistic business tactics. In addition, Microsoft (practically) forces end-users to use most, if not all, of their applications by tying them (at times without choice) to their operating system. Break them up into three separate businesses:

Operating System
Desktop Applications
Internet Applications

Punish Microsoft in such a way as this which will encourage fair competition and innovation.

Regards,

--

:: Mark Miller
:: markm@swoon.net